

Click The Photo (clickthephoto.com) is an online outsourcing firm specializing in image manipulation and is serving the global market since 2012. Click The Photo is one of the few firms in Bangladesh, providing image-editing services and outsourcing. It has already been able to draw the attention of giant clients and has got the working experiences with them. The demand of the services of our company is increasing day by day specially in terms of image manipulations and outsourcing training.

An exalted management team and highly qualified Board of Directors are leading the company under Promise IT Solution Limited. Now we have hundreds of satisfied customers with some regular loyal clients. As a team, we are always ready to carry out for your all Graphic Design and Image Editing services according to your requirements. We can certainly promise that you will be completely satisfied with our services and be able to differentiate us from other service providers. You will get your business solutions which actually you were actually seeking. Our quite professional support team and trained-up designers are enthusiastic to render the services in an amazing manner. We have more than 144 staff members, who are always working together to deliver the best work to the clients. We work constantly to keep the faith which our clients have instilled onto us, and consider ourselves that we are part and parcel of clients' Business.